INDIANS HAVE PROMINENT PART IN PEACE PAGEANT NEXT SATURDAY

More than 1000 people will take part in the pageant at Alexander field, Honolulu, next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock—the opening event of the Mid-Pacific Carnival.

One of the quaint features of the pageant will be the participation of American Indians, which has brought to those staging the pageant this question:

Why should Indians have a part so prominent in a pageant of peace? The pageant on Saturday will suggest an answer to the question in the ceremonies of "Burying the Hatchet," "Smoking the Pipe of Peace," and the Indian dance of joy over forgotten enmities and remembered bonds of union.

The dance itself is performed by the Campfire Girls under the direction of Mrs. A. F. Jackson and is one of the wildest and most fascinating drills that can be imagined. Accompanied by music as mysterious as the voices of the forest wild, the effect is spellbinding.

Prof. M. M. Scott, after reading over the drama prepared by Jas. A. Wilder, which forms the basis for this peace pageant, said "I wrote at once to Mr. Wilder expressing not only my delight but my amazement at the amount of research and the wealth of suggestion contained in it." One of these suggestions is the right place of the Indian in a program of peace.

The peace-loving character of the Indians is something too readily forgotten. The treatment accorded to them is one of the foulest blot on our nation's honor. Such agencies as the Mohawk conference have brought to light year after year injustices to Indians, which bring the blush to the cheeks and by so doing have done much to secure for them relief from some of their wrongs. Some of the moving pictures of the better class are educating the public to a kinder sentiment towards them.

While it seems of truth with the Indian as with some other types of man, that he never forgets a kindness and never forgives a wrong, early history and notably the experience of William Penn, as well as much that has since come to light, warrants Hawaii in bringing to the front in a pageant of peace the red man, native to these islands of America and Canada.

Italy has almost 1,000,000 trade union members.

SCOUTS ALERT!

As has been the custom in previous years, the Scouts of the Area will, so far as school and other duties permit, turn out to render public services during the Carnival.

The following schedule must be adhered to as closely as possible:
Saturday, Feb. 20, Peace Pageant—All Scouts report at Alexander field at 8 a. m. in full equipment. Scouts will take part in several scenes of the pageant and it is important that all be present.

Monday, Feb. 22, Military Parade—Report to the secretary of the director-general at Promotion Committee rooms at 8 a. m.

First class scouts will be prepared to render first aid. Each first class scout to have two second class or ten-terfeet to assist him. Second class scouts and ten-terfeet will be stationed at intersecting points on line of march to act as guides, do "good turns" and to preserve order under the direction of the police along line of march.

Monday, Feb. 22, 1:30 p. m.—All scouts report at Alexander field, where they will be stationed to keep field clear, etc.

Thursday, Feb. 25, 8 a. m.—Report at palace grounds prepared to render first aid, preserve order, etc. Equipment same as Monday, February 22.

Saturday, Feb. 27, 1 p. m.—Report at Kaplaniat park polo field. The duties and equipment will be the same as on the 25th.

Passes to the events scheduled to take place on the above dates will be given you by your scoutmaster.

PRICE OF BREAD IS ON THE RISE—HERE, TOO

The price of bread is on the rise. Yesterday, for the second time since the European war was declared, the price of the "staff of life" went from 24 loaves for a dollar to 22 loaves for a dollar.

More than 15 bakeries, announced the increase yesterday, to take effect immediately. Prior to January 1 the bakeries gave 26 loaves for one dollar. Then the amount was cut down to 24 loaves and yesterday to 22 loaves. For standard flour the bakeries formerly paid $4.80 per barrel. Now the price for the same flour is $7.50, they explain.

The bakeries reported that since the increase the first of the year the poorer people of the city have abandoned bread eating and have taken to rice and potatoes, resulting in a five per cent decrease in the amount of bread sold.

BASEMENT FLOODED IN 'HAWAIIAN' BUILDING AT FAIR, WRITES WOOD

That troubles never come singly is borne out in a letter which has been received by a member of the Hawaii fair commission from H. P. Wood, resident exposition commissioner. The first trouble which Mr. Wood experienced upon arriving in San Francisco was the improper heating of the Hawaii building, which necessitated the installation of a new plant. Now, writes Mr. Wood, he has had to install a pump in the basement of the building to keep it clear of flood water. On one occasion, he adds, the water seeped and covered the floor to a depth of two feet.

"The Hawaii building will be fully ready on the morning of February 20 and we shall have one of the most attractive interiors to be found on the grounds," writes Mr. Wood. "Our great card, of course, will be the 'painted fish.' They are being talked about by every employee of the exposition."

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICES.

Tomorrow being Ash Wednesday, the services at St. Andrew's cathedral, will be as follows:
There will be a celebration of the Holy communion at 7 a. m.
Short morning prayer at 8:45.
The litany, penitential office and Holy communion at 10 a. m.
In the evening at 7:30 will be a devotional service consisting largely of singing suitable hymns and offering special petitions appropriate to the day and season.

HONOLULU WOMEN JOIN UNIVERSAL PEACE BODY

Joining in a movement which has become nation-wide on the mainland, a large number of the women of Honolulu have gone on record as being opposed to war and to the United States making plans for greater defense. This has been done by signing a protest of the Women's Peace party, of which Jane Addams is president, drawn up at a recent meeting of women in Hull House, Chicago. A copy of the protest was read in some of the local churches Sunday and later passed through the congregations for signatures. Any women wishing to sign the protest may do so at the office of E. O. Hall & Son, Fort and King streets.
